

The Greet of the Continent, J. E. LOW TOOTH

Rocky Mountains and Beyond.

Crowded from cover to cover with illustrations as fine as anything in Harper's or the The Letter Press is wonderfully well done. From first to last it is as bright and breezy as the mountains themselves, a book that will charm and delight.

Describes in easy, graceful and charming manner the loftiest peaks, the grandest canons, the most wonderful scenery, and the finest hunting and fishing points in the entire range of the Rocky Mountains.

The reliability of the statistical matter is such as to make the book one of great value and worthy a place in any library. The whole a thing of beauty and delight.

Bound in Cloth with handsome ink and gold sides.

Sent per mail with MIND IN NATURE for one year on receipt of Two Dollars.

Johnston's Fluid Beef

Is manufactured in the form of Paste, hermetically sealed, contains the Albumen and Fibrine, as well as the Extract of the Beef, and is a highly nutritious article of food. In the Lancet of Nov. 11, 1865, Baron Liebig says:

"Were it possible to furnish the market at a reasonable price with a preparation of meat combining in itself the albu-minous together with the extractive principles, such a prep-aration would have to be preferred to the 'Extractum Carnis,' for it would contain ALL the nutritive constituents of meat.

THE ABOVE IS JUST WHAT

JOHNSTON'S FLUID

HAS ACCOMPLISHED.

I will pay $1,000 to any charitable institution in the State of Illinois if there is not more nutritive and lifegiving properties contained in one pound of "Johnston's Fluid Beef" than there is in 100 pounds of Liebig's Extract, or any similar preparation.

* The * American * Cyclopaedia *

Is pre-eminently the work for our country and generation. No one has time to grope among a hundred different works for every fact required, without the certainty of finding it at ast. With a Cyclopædia embracing every important subject, and having its topics alphabetically arranged, not a moment is lost. The matter in question is found at once, digested, stripped of all that is irrelevant and unnecessary, and verified by a comparison of the best authorities. Moreover while only men of fortune can collect a library complete in all the departments of knowledge, a Cyclopædia, worth in itself, for purposes of reference, at least a thousand volumes, is within the reach of all—the cierk, the merchant, the professional man, the farmer, the mechanic. In a country like ours, where the humblest may be called to responsible positions requiring intelligence and general information, the value of such a work can not be over-estimated.

Pure Air Furnaces, Stoves

OPEN FIRE PLACES.

The advantages of our system of heating, consist in the perfect quality of the air and the wonderful economy of fuel. The air to be breathed passes through tubes behind and away from the fire, and does not come in contact with over-heated or cast iron. All the heat generated from the combustion of the Fuel, the Gas and the Smoke, is retained in the house, and does not go up the chimney. These goods SAVE THEIR COST IN TWO SEASONS, besides giving a summer at mosphere through the house. Adapted to all fuels Furnaces in nine sizes, $90 to $200. Stoves from $15 to $125.
